DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Newly submitted claims 9-20 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: Independent claims 9 and 10 recite the combination of a nasal rinser. Independent Claim 1 recites the subcombination of an outlet portion. The subcombination is more specific than the combination in that it includes a nozzle-shaped channel.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 9-20 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Goodnow et al (US 4,300,545) and Markus (US 5,843,043). Goodnow et al and Markus disclose an outlet portion comprising an outlet end, a connection end and a nozzle shaped channel between these ends that shows a restriction section and an expanded outlet section, an enlarged circumference portion at the outlet end, and a receptacle provided with a piston for emptying of the rinsing liquid (See Figures below).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goodnow et al and Markus in view of Flagg (US 1,507,475). Goodnow et al and Markus disclose all of the claimed limitations except wherein the receptacle is a flexible, balloon shaped body, which is compressible for emptying of the rinsing liquid. Flagg discloses wherein the receptacle is a flexible, balloon shaped body (2), which is compressible for emptying of the rinsing liquid (Figure 1). It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to use the teachings of Flagg to modify the inventions of Goodnow et al and Markus and connect the outlet portion to the receptacle/bulb of Flagg since compressible bulbs are notoriously well known in the art as a means for storing and emptying its contents.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on August 30, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the prior art does not disclose, "wherein a diameter of the expanded outlet section is greater than a diameter of the restriction section. Examiner respectfully disagrees. Markus clearly illustrates that a diameter of the expanded outlet section is greater than a diameter of the restriction section (see figure above).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
